FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LADIES OF THE EIGHTIES SING-ALONG AT ALAMO DRAFTHOUSE RITZ TO BENEFIT GIRLS ROCK CAMP AUSTIN

To benefit Girls Rock Camp Austin, the Alamo Draffhouse at the Ritz is bringing back their popular Ladies of the Eighties Sing-Along for one night only: Sunday, June 22, beginning at 10:00 p.m.

Remember when love was a battlefield, girls just wanted to have fun, and everyone walked like an Egyptian? Experience the rollercoaster of fashion, rooster bangs, and emotion that was the Eighties again at the Alamo Draffhouse. Spend the night singing along with totally rockin' 80's divas such as Debbie Gibson, Tiffany, Joan Jett and Madonna. Videos from Taylor Dayne, Cyndi Lauper and the Go-Go's will also be in the mix. How can you say no to a totally fun night to benefit a totally awesome good cause? This might be your only chance this summer to dig out your spandex and leg warmers in support of some totally rockin' girls in Austin. What a feeling!

Girls Rock Camp Austin is a nonprofit dedicated to empowering girls and young women of all backgrounds and abilities through musical education and performance. 2007's inaugural camp served 26 girls, and the notable artists who worked with the girls include Sara Hickman, Dixie Chicks songwriter Susan Gibson, Rosie Flores, and Go-Go's bassist Kathy Valentine. The camp is gearing up for their July 2008 summer session at the Ann Richards School for Young Women Leaders, with 100 campers ready to rock out.

Proceeds from the event will benefit the camp scholarship fund, which will provide 50 low-income students with financial aid this summer. More information can be found at www.girlsrockcampaustin.org.

The Alamo Draffhouse at the Ritz is located at 320 E. Sixth Street. General admission is $12, and tickets can be purchased online at www.originalalamo.com.
